Driving through Bright storms with a friend

Gossiping,

Giggles float around Whispers

Asking stupid questions like

"Why do boys want to hold hands?"

Just takin' life as it comes . . .

This year we expanded with twenty of the best
 So as to increase spirit and encourage the rest
 In summer we stretched, danced, and kicked into dusk light
 We marched the field from end to end
 to make it come out right
 We gave the teams our all and all, whether it was lose or win
 Knowing good and well we'd never feel quite like this again
 It came and went as years come and go . . .
 But a greater sister love we'll never really know

WINTER

PLASTIC COLORS

A question asked
I replied positively
7:15, Friday evening
Pike Lanes.
Unaware of hours ahead
A Walk . . .
A Rest . . .
A Nightmare . . .
Where were my companions?
Christmas was near.
My eyes covered with Plastic windows
So colorful, yet untrue.
In terrifying desperation
I walked.
On a hill, I met the Sun.
Yesterday seemed so far away,
but now, again
I am Free.

LOS CONQUISTADORES

Los Conquistadores is one of the oldest organizations in HHS having been founded in 1958. The organization, sponsored by Richard Alan Young, is also one of the largest. Mr. Young's ideas and patience, combined with the many talented and dedicated members in the organization, contribute much toward the club's success in their many projects and activities each year.

Los Conquistadores worked hard to create a first place winning float for Homecoming.

GO FOR THE BLIND PRIDE

On Tuesday March 29th, Harrison High School held its second Career Day. The guest speaker was the Arkansas Attorney General, Bill Clinton. After the keynote address the students attended classes of their choice, conducted by career representatives who specialize in that particular area. Over all the day was a success. Special thanks to Mr. Dale and Mrs. Durham.

An Opinion

Nothing really ever happens.
There is only a remembrance of the past.
And a dream of the future.
You are always here.
Waiting to add to your ever growing Vault of a mind
Another memory or dream.

Our relationship began to sink
like a wounded ship.
We both tried to be the captain going down with our ship, only, we didn't exert ourselves to save it first.
Finally the storm stopped.
You came shining through with ways to patch our ship and bring it safely back to shore.
We rode the tidals of each other's words,
and shed tears of salty water
for our ship to sail on.
At last we saw land;
more beautiful than we had imagined.
the land is still there,
it is our land and our beauty
. . . forever.

Parting Friends

Why is it they have to go Back to the land they came from?
To leave the friends they've made here
And leave the empty spot in our lives
That no one could fill quite like they did?

Duty calls them away
So tearfully they part
Old friends
Who will never be quite like they were
When we lived with them
Day by day,
And watched the changes
Age made on our lives.

Packing up all their worldly goods
Last moment tears, kisses, and goodbyes
Then they're on their way
To settle down to life
Once again.

Lost Love

Doesn't He know I don't love him?
 Can't he tell by the way I never Look him in the eye.
 The way I never really feel very Good when we're together.
 Doesn't he know it's not him I'm Thinking of?
 That when I sing a song, it's Never meant for him.
 When he squeezes my hand I don't Squeeze his back.
 Doesn't he know that I can't be
 In Love with two people at once
 That he can't make me forget,
 No matter how hard he tries.
 Please let me tell him without hurting him.
 Or have I already hurt him by
 Not telling him.

THE END OF THE OLD THE BEGINNING OF THE NEW

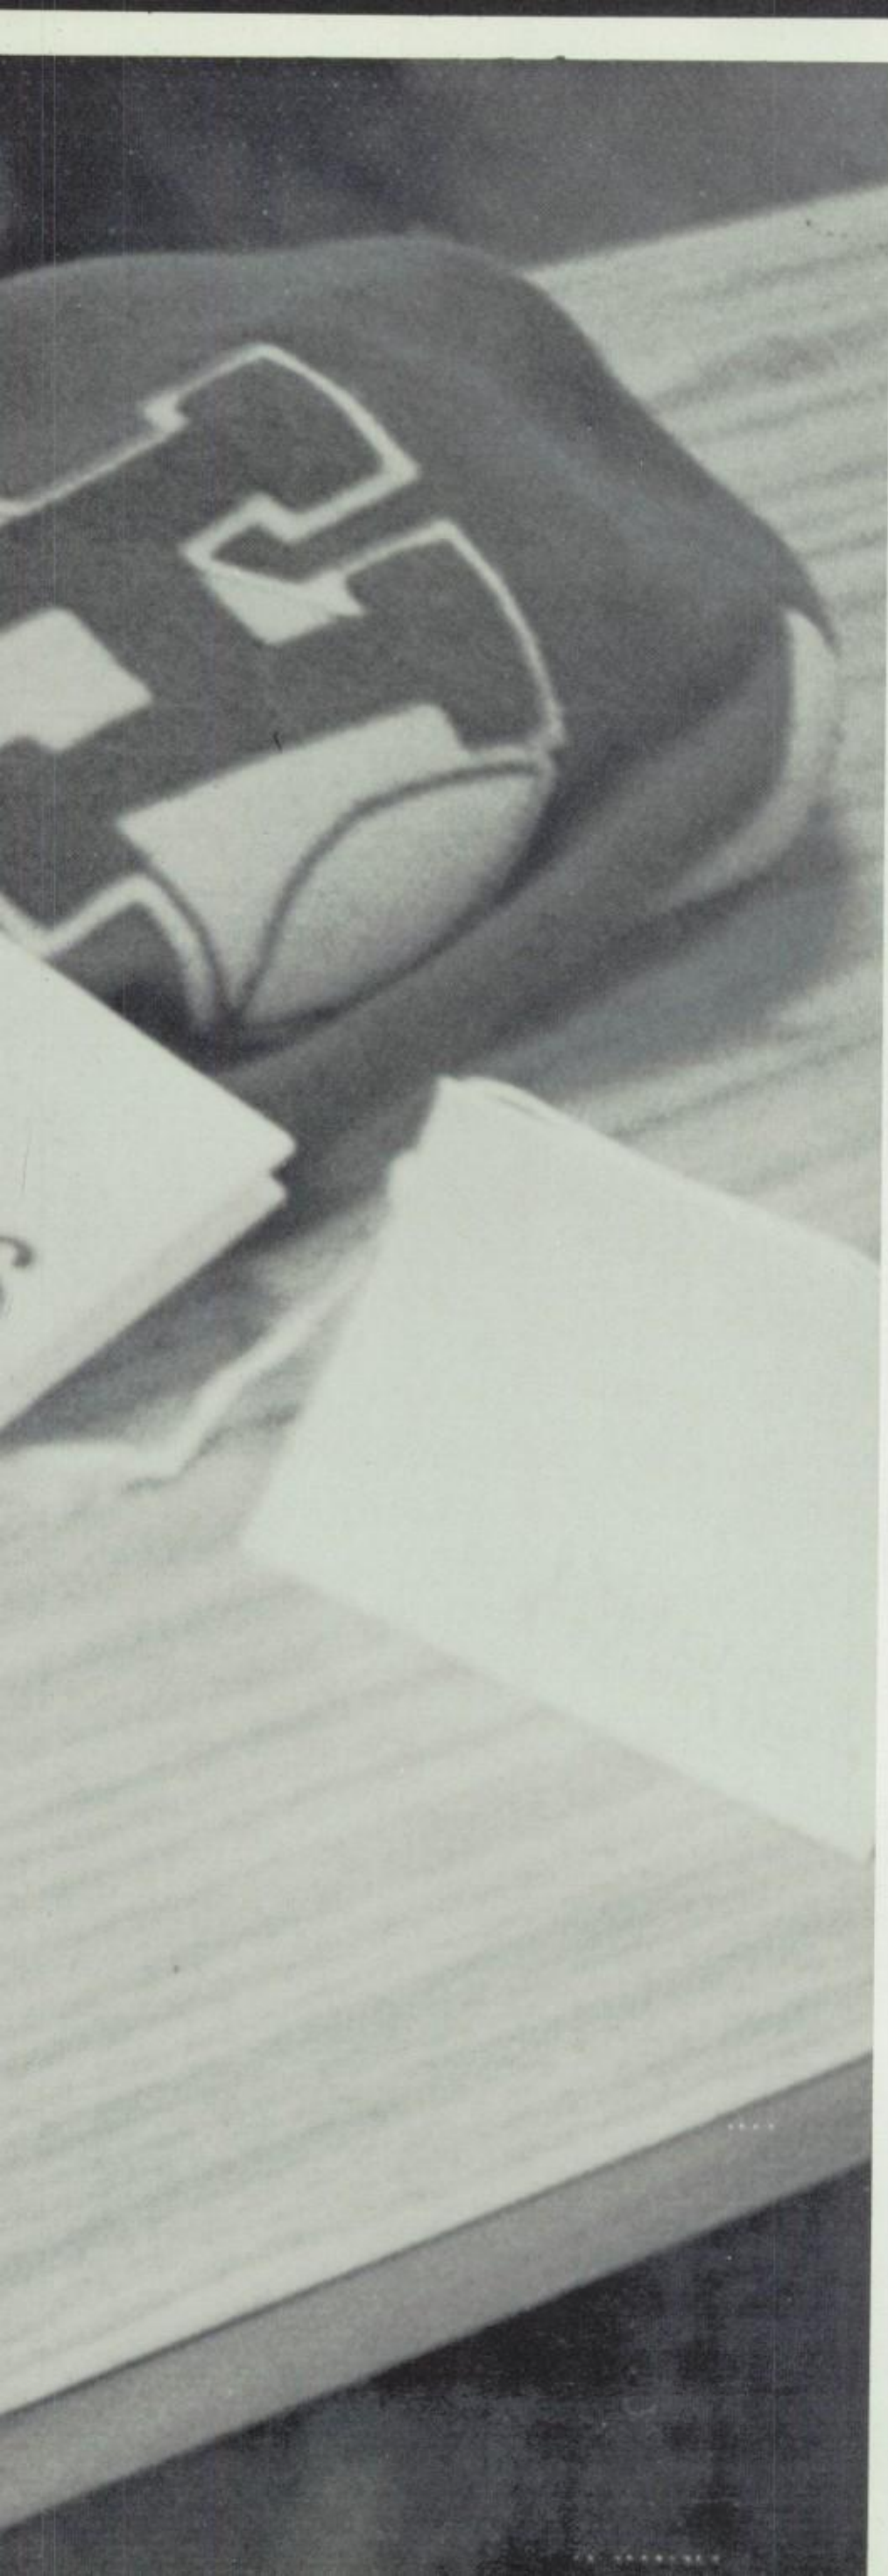

OUR APPRECIATION TO THE SENIORS OF '77

Every noble impulse;
Every unselfish expression of love;
Every brain suffering for the right;
Every surrender of self to something higher than self;
Every loyalty to an ideal;
Every unselfish devotion to principle;
Every helpfulness to humanity;
Every act of self-control;
Every fine courage of the soul, undefeated by pretence or policy;
But by being, doing, and living of good for good's sake -
May your future be happy and prosperous.

'77 SENIOR DIRECTORY

It was a beautiful time for exploring;
 Joys were hidden
 Within the moments of each day,
 There to touch,
 to keep,
 or just to hold awhile.
 We've taken a winding course,
 to learn,
 to achieve,
 and to experience.
 When we think of the places we've been,
 the things we've done,
 the people we've loved,
 the decisions that came up from time to time- - -
 We know the search itself has as much value
 as the find.

Adapted from a poem
 by Marilee Zdenek

Mr. Jerry McFarland, Mrs. Esther Cook, and not pictured Mr. Carroll Patterson received recognition for their service and dedication to the school. Beth Martin, Yearbook Editor, presented the Awards. (Below)

Harrison High School Alma Mater Dear
 We Pledge Thee Our Tribute
 With Each Passing Year
 Here's to the Gold and Here's to the Blue
 Ever we'll be Faithful
 Loyal and True

The Golden Goblin Staff set a goal in the fall when the year was new. We wanted to accurately recall our lives and times at HHS.

The year, the headaches, and the frustrations are finished.

If just once, this book brings back a memory, whether its tears or laughter, we will know our goal was reached.
